FOREWORD

 N presenting the Crest set to you the Junior Class of 1935 has tried to preserve those memories of Chillicothe High School which will be most precious in after years.

May this book be a memorial not only for the present, but for the future—one that will recall the happy associations, activities, and proud achievements of your high school days.

THE SPIRIT OF ADVENTURE

*T*HROUGHOUT the ages, Man, whether seeking a livelihood, searching for pleasure, or defending his faith, has always been lured onward by a spirit of curiosity and daring which through his struggles and difficulties has eventually led him to even greater and more worthwhile things. This magnetic force was the spirit of Adventure. Prehistoric man, in search of the very food by which he might maintain existence itself, discovered the rudiments of art and science, and left the world a heritage upon which it might build its foundations. The Vikings, plundering and ravaging, were led by Adventure to new shores where life gained for them new meaning. The Romans, courageous and ambitious, gave to the world beauty, philosophic thought and the very language of our country; they knew Adventure in her most daring form—that of conquest. The Crusaders, inspired by their faith, dared the dangers of far-distant lands and mingled the civilizations of the East and the West. Columbus, stirred by the whisperings of the running tides, ventured forth over the uncharted seas, and laid at the feet of the world a new continent. Over this same continent, led by the siren song of Adventure have traveled brave men and women, giving at last to civilization the vast resources of the fertile West. In this new decade men have dared the paths of the air and sea, prompted by the same spirit which led the Vikings and the Romans and the Pioneers forward on their quests. It is a spirit as old as life itself, yet as new and fresh as each generation which succumbs to its lure. It has guided men and nations to glory, and yet it is the same spirit which guides even you and me to fulfill our humble destinies. This—the Spirit of Adventure—we have taken as the theme of the 1935 Cresset.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. We regret that Mr. Ainsworth, who was expected to be in the city in his new capacity as Assistant District Attorney, is unable to attend to the matter.

Because of the progress in the work which he has made in his school, we feel that he is well prepared for his new position and will be able to take the wisest and most effective measures. Mr. Adams is a very capable and thorough teacher and a very capable and thorough administrator. In the school, he has tried so well that the school is a very good one. In the future, some excellent improvements are now being made in the school by Mr. Adams. In the work which he has done and the work which he has done. During Mr. Adams' administration, the school has been a very good one which has proved very successful in the work which he has done and the activities of the school. Mr. Adams has been a very good and a very good judgment and a very good one in the work which he has done and the flying colors.

When the Junior-Senior system was introduced, Mr. Adams was very fortunate in having Mr. McCall as his assistant. Mr. McCall's ability to assume the duties of Mr. Adams was seen in the principal of the Junior-Senior system for the first four years and his interest and ability in carrying on for the next four years the work of the superintendent of the school as principal.

At the close of the nineteen hundred and thirty five school year, the Senior class had completed twelve years of study in the Chillicothe Public School system. These years were marked by progress, accomplishment, and success. Though all the years were outstanding, the last was the most satisfactory.

The Seniors, who are the leaders of the student body, participated in all the activities of the school. The membership of the class consisted of fifty girls and fifty-four boys, making a total of one hundred and four members. The president of the class was Joseph Gale, who had served in this capacity during the Sophomore and Junior years. The other officers were Tilton Newell, vice-president, and Mary Elizabeth Morgan, secretary-treasurer. The executive committee was composed of fifteen members, including the class officers. In the National Honor Society, fifteen of the members were Seniors. Five were elected to membership in their Junior year and ten in their Senior year. The staff of the school's newspaper, the Gabbler, was composed of twenty-two members of the graduating class. The Chilletes and Chili-Peppers, pep organizations, had fourteen Senior boys and girls as members. In athletics the class was also well represented. They were active workers in all the various clubs of the school and some of them did work in the office. In the spring the Senior class play was presented and the entire class worked to make it a success. During the year two entertainments were given: a get-acquainted party was held in September and a farewell party in May.

The climax of the year was reached at Commencement when the goal for which the nineteen hundred and thirty-five class had worked twelve years to reach was gained. They left the high school confident that the knowledge they had gained could be applied in their future life.

JUNIORS

President .....	CHARLES MOSER
Vice-President.....	SIDNEY PETERS
Secretary-Treasurer.....	HILTON SKINNER
Sponsor.....	NANCY L. CHAPMAN

The Junior Class, with a membership of one hundred and two persons, was organized the second week of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-four; it selected for its official body: President, Charles Moser; Vice-President, Sidney Peters; and Secretary-Treasurer, Hilton Skinner; and Sponsor, Nancy L. Chapman.

The Junior Class play, "Peter Pops In," was presented December the seventh, nineteen hundred and thirty-four. Due to the splendid work of the director, Nancy L. Chapman, and to the ability and efforts of the cast, the play was a success financially and dramatically. The purpose of the play was twofold: to entertain the public and to make money to defray the expenses of the class.

The Juniors entertained with a party March eighth, with teachers of the Junior-Senior High School as their guests.

In the dining room of the Christian Church on May the tenth, the annual Junior-Senior banquet was held. Each member of the class in some way helped in this social affair, one long to be remembered for its impressive program; its beauty and a pleasurable time.

At an assembly on May fourteenth, the talent of the class was displayed in an all Junior program. At this time the annual publication of the Junior class, the Cresset, was presented to the school. Much credit is due to the staff for the efficient work that this volume of the Cresset exemplifies, especially in that very attractive feature, block printing, which provides color and originality.

This class is duly represented in scholastic and athletic activities. Five of its members are in the National Honor Society. Five participated in the oratorical contest, February 11, with Nancy L. Rice placing second and Hilton Skinner third. Hilton is also a member of the debating team, which has had a very successful year. As to athletics, nine Junior boys received letters in football, five in basketball, and we were well represented in track.

Never was there a class who enjoyed working together with such whole-hearted co-operation for the betterment of the entire school. Much of the success is due to our sponsor who has worked most willingly and untiringly in every project the class has attempted. May this class continue to be progressive when it assumes the dignity of Seniors next year.

CHILLICOTHE HIGH SCHOOL SONG

I often think of thee, Dear C. H. S.
When I am all alone and far away.
I'll sing the old refrain, Dear C. H. S.
For it recalls to me the bygone days;
It takes me back again to thy halls fair
Where sunlight's golden rays beam everywhere,
My childhood joys again come back to me.
Thy sweeping lawns in fancy, too, I see;
It was o'er them the shadows dreams did bring
And to that memory my heart will cling,
I'm never sad and lone while on my way
As long as I can sing of this bright day.

Though years may pass and go, Dear C. H. S.      ●
And though our hearts are young, our heads be gray,
Yet still we'll cling to thee, Dear C. H. S.
And dear old memories forever stay
The greatness of a lesson full of truth
That built great dreams for our high hearts of youth,
Of all that life can give, that song is best,
We had from thee our hearts so long impressed;
And when at last our feet have reached the height,
Where shines the glorious gleam of truth and light,
Then back to thee again we'll turn and press
A blessing on thy altar, C. H. S.

The historic record of the Class of 1937 is divided into three parts—ancient, medieval, and modern. The ancient period began in 1926 in various parts of the United States. A large per cent of the class learned to write in Chillicothe, some in rural Livingston County, seventeen in other Missouri towns, one each in New York, California, Wyoming and Idaho, three in Iowa and Illinois and two in Kansas.

The medieval period began in 1931 when eighty-one boys and girls enrolled in Junior High School. They experienced democracy by electing officers. The honors were bestowed upon Sue Lindsey, Arlene Harper, Iris Page and Miss Perrine, Sponsor. The period continued for three eventful years in which the class participated in all activities open to it. Sue Lindsey, Seventh Grade Cresset Queen, served as attendant to the Cresset Queen at the coronation ceremony. The Eighth Grade officers were Leland Emerson, Margaret McCord, Jay Ormsby and Mr. Shaw, Sponsor. Arlene Harper was Cresset Queen. During the Freshman year Dick Gale, Curtis Fay, and Elton Rickerson were officers and Miss Linville, Sponsor. By that time, the class had developed confidence and consequently some members brought distinction to the class. Marie Klein was the Cresset Queen. Helen Chase won first place in writing in a state-wide contest at the Chillicothe Business College. Co-Beth Smithpeter, Maryanne Rensch, and Marie Klein were Chilletes while Jean Johnson, Warren Culling, Vincent Moore and Elton Rickerson were Chili-Peppers. Junior High Basketball letters were earned by Clarence Boehner, Jay Ormsby, Curtis Fay, Elton Rickerson and Robert Nothnagel.

The modern period began September 3, 1934, when one hundred and eight Sophomores enrolled in Senior High School. The class chose Walter Moore, President; Co-Beth Smithpeter, Vice-President; Elton Rickerson, Secretary-Treasurer; and Miss Johnson, Sponsor. Sue Lindsey was Gabbler reporter. Leta Jacobs was honored as Cresset Queen of the class. Dick Gale was the only Sophomore to receive a C in football. At the close of the first semester the Honor Roll carried the names of Margaret Brady, Max Fordyce, Maryanne Rensch, Barbara Rhoades, Margaret Jones, and Arlene Harper. The class enjoyed parties at Halloween and St. Patrick's Day.

The record of the Sophomore Class closed May 17, 1935 but the class has two more years to make history before "Finis" can be written for the class of 1937.

The Freshman Class had one hundred and twenty-nine members at the beginning of the school year, thirty-seven of whom were new pupils in this school.

This class has tried to maintain a high scholastic standard. Twenty pupils were on the semester Honor Roll—five on the E Honor Roll and fifteen on the E and S Honor Roll.

The members of the class have taken part in all school activities. Twenty-seven members are in the senior band, playing a variety of instruments. Eight Freshmen went out for Junior High Basket Ball and one for Senior High Basket Ball.

An interesting assembly was given Tuesday afternoon, February 12, by the Freshman English classes in commemoration of Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary. The program consisted of talks and music by individual members and selections by the Freshman band.

The Cresset Queen contest was very close, Freda Thomas was chosen to represent the class and the members supported her loyally.

The Freshman class held its annual party March 14 in honor of St. Patrick's Day. Members of the faculty were guests Scholarship has been a guiding star of the class. Three members of the were elected to the position of Monitor. The Monitor was elected from the class. All of the students in the class were thirty-nine neither absent nor tardy during the first half of the year.

A Thank you program which had been planned by the Social Science class was presented in an assembly. With the seventh grade we also gave a social program February 12. Several other assembly programs.

The musical talent is represented by thirty-seven members in Band or Orchestra.

Three members of the class, Max Williams, Leroy Canterbury, and Teddy Chittwood won a berth on the Junior High Basket Ball team.

We elected Martha Moore as our candidate for Cresset Queen. We were able to repeat our success of last year and for the second time had the joy of seeing our queen win the coveted crown.

The Seventh Grade Class is proud of its record for nineteen hundred thirty-four and thirty-five. The class started the school year with an enrollment of one hundred and ten pupils. At the end of the first semester there were thirty-one of the one hundred and ten who had not been absent or tardy. The Class had thirteen students who were on the S and E honor roll and twenty-seven in the beginners' band.

During the year a Book Club was organized. The programs consist of original poems, stories, alphabetical rhymes, and reports. All of these programs proved to be excellent as the students used great originality in preparing the material. The class also made menu covers at Christmas time for the men on the U.S.S. Medusa. The covers were different shapes and styles with backgrounds of black and dark green using holly wreaths and poinsettias as the theme.

The Class was proud to have chosen for its candidate for Cresset Queen Anne Meinershagen, and, though defeated, the Seventh Grade supported her with its utmost school loyalty.

BAND

The Senior Band was one of the few school organizations which continued to work last summer. Its members gave a concert each week during the summer months at S. J. Park. In August the band entered the Juvenile Band contest held at the Missouri State Fair and was placed first with a ninety percent rating. In this contest selections chosen were "Semiramide" by Rossini and Franz Schubert's "Overture."

In September the band went to Kansas

City to participate in the American Legion contest and later played there at the American Legion.

At the present time the school band has one hundred and fifty students enrolled in the Music Department. Eighty of these are members of the band.

This year the organization has a better instrumentation than it has ever had. The new instruments are an alto clarinet which was purchased by the Band Mothers; two new euphoniums purchased by the Board of Education; a tenor saxophone, and a bari-

The National Honor Society was founded by a Chicago branch of Phi Beta Kappa which established the foundation of this organization firmly bedded in four principles. These are Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. This society has spread all over the United States, and in 1932 the Chillicothe High School received its charter. Membership in this society is looked forward to and prized in this high school. Its membership is composed of the students in the Junior and Senior classes, who, in the judgment of the administration, are qualified to join the ranks of such an organization, and to carry the flaming torch to light the way.

The National Honor Society in the high school has lived up to the agreement contracted in the charter. Each year the society has been represented by the finest students the school can select: girls and boys who are foremost scholastically in their classes; those who have shouldered their share of responsibility; and those who have the initiative and character to lead in the interests of the school. It takes such boys and girls to make a school successful, and the principles of the National Honor Society tend to make the character and morale of the whole school higher by the influence of the selected few.

The charter requires that the members must have an S average in their studies, besides the four qualities. 10% are chosen from the Senior class and 5% from the Junior class each year.

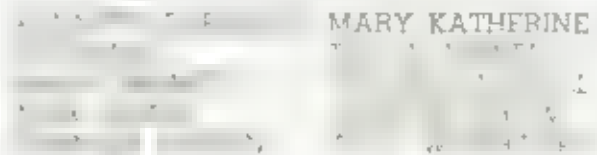

This year after the candidates were selected at the close of the first semester, Mr. and Mrs. McCall entertained with a lovely party for the society. On February 19 an assembly was held in which the candidates were formally admitted into membership. It was conducted by Miss Sneed, the sponsor, and Charles Edwin Watkins, a Senior member elected in Junior year, the President, who explained the formation and purposes of the society. The other four Senior members elected in Junior year each lighted a candle, symbols of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service, and told the meaning of each.

For sixteen years the members of the Senior Class of the Chillicothe High School have published a journalistic paper called "The Gabbler." This high school paper was first known as the "Cresset" and was published for one month. It was the change in name of the paper in 1919 that has been called bimonthly.

The Gabbler has the largest circulation of any high school paper in the United States. It is published weekly and is sold at a price of five cents per copy. It is sold to individuals throughout the United States.

Its purpose is to give to the community an insight into the work being carried on at the Chillicothe High School and to give to the pupils a resume of the happenings in the various classrooms.

The Gabbler is a member of the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association. Each year the paper is sent to Missouri Interscholastic Press Association, where it is ranked with the best high school newspapers throughout the state. The Gabbler is also a member of the National Press Association and receives much of its inspiration for good journalism from the Association's official organ, "The Scholastic."

In October, nineteen hundred thirty-four, two members of the Gabbler Staff had the privilege and honor of attending a meeting of the National Scholastic Press Association held in Kansas City. This meeting was attended by more than one thousand editors and publishers of high school journals in the United States.

The Gabbler is sponsored by Miss Josephine Norville who gives to the work much inspiration and with whom the staff feels it a privilege to work.

A Cresset is an iron vessel or basket which is used for burning oil or some other illuminant. Milton gives it as "Starry lamps and blazing cressets, fed with naphtha and asphaltus." The Cresset, the annual of the Chillicothe High School, is a torch lighting the paths of those who are diligently striving for an education, a torch not only for the present time, but for the remaining years when they as students have departed from this school.

Previously the torch was lighted each year by the sponsor Miss Maharg who, as all have seen, lighted it so well that it made a bright flame which reached the darkest corners. We, as the staff of the 1935 Cresset, were sorry not to be guided by her this year, but our new sponsor, Miss Mary Lucy Hafford, is guiding us in a pleasing and satisfactory way to our task—the completion of a well-made annual.

Each year for twenty-nine years, the Cresset has been carefully planned and completed by the Junior class. This class looks upon the work as a duty, as well as a privilege and the members are eager to leave something to show their accomplishment during the school year. All previous annuals of the high school have been worthwhile, so the staff of this Junior Class, hoping to be worthy of its predecessors, has endeavored to create a Cresset which will be a credit to the school and the students which it represents, and a pleasure to its readers

When in years to come, you turn the pages of the Cresset, we hope you will enjoy the work done by those whom you see on this page, that you will remember that it was they, guided by their sponsor, who through their untiring efforts, hours of labor, and the best of intentions, have tried to portray the history of C. H. S. as it was made during the school years of 1934-35.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB

S. TAYLOR DOWELL

Public speaking is not necessarily speech making — it is simply talking interestingly and entertainingly about subjects on which one likes to talk. Members of the Public Speaking Class are expected to become good orators, but they are expected to be good conversationalists.

The Public Speaking Club was made up of the members of the Public Speaking Class and other students who had taken the course. The club has presented several programs at the school. The first program of the year was a full evening's performance given by the club. The entertainment consisted of two one-act plays, a variety of musical numbers and an address by the club members. The first play was "It Takes a Heap of Livin' in a House to Make It Home," and Stanley Linton sings "Goin' Home" by Dvorak, accompanied by Charles E. Watkins at the piano and Paul Stoner on the violin. They have appeared on programs and before several clubs in town.

In the school elimination for the American Legion Oratorical Contest held February 11 fifteen members of the Club gave six minute talks on various phases of the subject, "The American Dream." The orations were original and were given without notes. The contestants were judged on the following points: content, posture, extent of investigation, originality, and persuasiveness, organization, good articulation, and good pronunciation. Stanley Linton was awarded first place, and Nancy Rice was awarded second. The program was considered a success because never before has a student in the school entered an oratorical contest.

During the course of the year the club has given several parties. In class the work consisted of talks on various subjects, current events, and the study of famous speeches. A valuable member of the club is Mrs. Bethel, a resident of the town who has joined the club to improve her speech and be able to talk more correctly in public. She has given many splendid and instructive suggestions to the club.

Members of the Class feel that they have gained a great deal from the course and will be better equipped to take their places in society because of the training they have received.

FORENSIC SOCIETY

TAYLOR DOW

The Forensic Society of the Chillicothe High School was organized at the beginning of the second semester under the supervision of Mr. Dowell. Hilton Skinner and Stanley Linton were chosen as members of the team.

The purpose of debating is to develop the intellectual capacities and interests of good sportsmanship, self-reliance, confidence and poise. Those who become experienced in debating learn to express their ideas in clear, exact language; their judgment is trained, and their faculties for constructive thinking are developed.

The question for debate the past season was, Resolved: "That the Federal Government should adopt the policy of equalizing educational opportunity throughout the nation by means of annual grants to the several states for public elementary and secondary education."

On January seventeenth, the debating team met the Milan team at Trenton, and succeeded in upholding the affirmative side of the question. The next debate was to have been with the Pattonsburg High School, but this debate was forfeited to Chillicothe.

The Chillicothe team was invited to attend tournaments at William Jewell College, Westminster College, and Missouri Valley. However, they did not accept any of these invitations.

On March 12, Chillicothe and Carrollton debated at Carrollton. Our boys upheld the affirmative side of the question. Although they were defeated, the team made a good showing against their opponents, who had had much more experience this season.

Stanley graduates this year, but Hilton will be back again next year to defend our school in debating.

LATIN CLUB

was more than a study of Latin was such that those who entered the club were not red with the spirit of success, rather it was a study of the language because it was a study of the language.

The club was a very large club, composed of both first and second year students. Meetings were held once a month after school, and the study of Roman architecture, and sculpture, has been a part of the club as educational. We have also presented this study with projects, and have also presented a stereopticon slide.

Our annual Christmas party was held in the gymnasium on December 14. The first part of the party was a presentation of a play. The play was a comedy entered the gymnasium and made the walls of the hall ring with laughter and merriment. Delicious refreshments were served, and which the Club President distributed all gifts to all from a beautifully decorated tree.

Several members of the faculty were present at this party.

As is the custom, each Spanish Class met early in the fall and organized its club under the sponsorship of the Spanish teacher, Miss Norville. There were nineteen club members of Espanol Uno and twenty two members of Espanol Dos present.

The general aim of the club is to further the study of Spanish and to encourage conversation in that language. For this purpose the clubs meet the first Friday of each month.

The programs at the club meetings consist of current news from Spain and South America; Spanish literature, art, and music; the study of customs and habits of the Spanish people; and the history of Spanish speaking countries. At each club meeting all members of the organization take part in the singing of songs and the playing of games conducted in Spanish.

The meetings of the second year Club are conducted largely in Spanish. This plan has resulted in the breaking down of all timidity in the use of the language.

The members of the first year Spanish Club were entertained by the members of the second year Spanish Club, November twenty-third, nineteen hundred thirty-four, in the cafeteria at the High School building with the annual initiation party. Following the initiations, planned by the second year members and welcomed with fear and trembling by the newcomers, dancing and games were enjoyed by all. At the close of the evening typical Spanish refreshments were served at a near-by cafe. Mr. and Mrs. McCall, Miss Leta Maharg, and Miss Marie Miller were faculty guests. Miss Lorene Kroeger, who had had two years of Spanish before attending the Chillicothe High School, was also a guest. Several former members of Spanish clubs at the Chillicothe High School also attended.

FIRST YEAR COMMERCIAL CLUB

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to prepare each student for his place in the business world of tomorrow. In this training each student is given the opportunity to be a business associate and leader, to the betterment of the community.

Our Commercial Club was organized March 9, 1932 under the sponsorship of Miss Alice Lawler. In 1933, it was divided into two groups—the First and Second Year Clubs. The First Year Club is composed of students taking Typing only. The Second Year Club is made up of those who are taking their second term of Commercial work. Also included in this latter group are those who are studying Shorthand and Bookkeeping in connection with Typing, although it is not a part of the Commercial course.

The Commercial Clubs entertained with a Valentine's Day party on Friday, February 8, in the Student Union. Several guests were invited besides the Commercial students—the faculty, former members of the Department, and outside talent who took part in the program. The evening was spent in games and dancing. At about 10 o'clock, Fortunes were told following which delicious refreshments were served. The room was decorated appropriately, and it was evident that the several committees had worked faithfully to make the party the success that it was.

The three divisions of the Commercial department are: Bookkeeping, Shorthand, and Typing. The first of these, Bookkeeping, acquaints the student with the use of the many business papers found in office work, and the method of recording business transactions in the proper books. In this course, the pupils prepare journals and ledgers in a neat and accurate form.

Shorthand, if taken in conjunction with bookkeeping, offers the greatest opportunity for advancement. Students are taught that Shorthand is written by sound. They read shorthand long before they begin to write it, because it has been shown that one who reads correctly written Shorthand will be more likely to write correct Shorthand.

The specific aim in Typing is to attain accuracy and speed in the use of the Typewriter. The hand is trained to manipulate the keys of the machine by what is known as the touch method. That is, the operator does not have to look at the keyboard in order to write. The purpose of the course in Typing is to acquire an effective control of the keyboard and the operative devices of the machine. Also, however, by the time a student completes this course, he should be able to type a mailable letter—that is, one which is mechanically correct as to form and typing.

The Typing classes take from three to five tests every week, striving always to lower the per cent of errors and raise the number of net words per minute. During the year, several members of the classes have received awards from the Gregg Company for speed.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

M. F. MAY

The purpose of this organization is to stimulate interest in the Home Economics department, and to set up a united educational program which places emphasis upon the development of the high school girl's ability to conduct her own home, and to meet her share of the problems of the community. In the Home Economics department the girls are taught science; art in relation to design, clothing, and house furnishings; the management of a home; to plan purchase, and prepare meals; and how to make their own clothing.

This year in addition to their regular school work the Home Economics classes have managed the cafeteria department of the school, serving from eighty to one hundred and fifty daily. This extra work was an arduous undertaking, but the girls worked untiringly and made it a successful project. On special days, such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Valentine's Day, each Cafeteria guest was presented with a favor.

The annual Christmas Party was held in the Cafeteria December 14 and was enjoyed by everyone who attended. The room was decorated appropriately, and the holiday atmosphere was preserved throughout the evening. The guests played games; then refreshments which had been prepared by the girls were served.

January 22, the Home Economics department served the Father and Son banquet for the agriculture class. The girls planned, prepared, and served a delicious meal for this occasion. Guests from Jefferson City, business men of Chillicothe, members of the School Board, and the fathers of the boys were present.

The Future Farmers of America Association was organized several years ago for the purpose of promoting agricultural interests among the members and in the community.

Early during this school year, the Vocational Agriculture Department organized the Future Farmers of America club. Its members have labored industriously to make the club a success. The work of the club has been of good standing and the boys are justly proud of their progress.

On October 20-27 the club attended the American Royal in Kansas City, Missouri, which is one of the largest livestock shows in the world. Several members of the organization entered calves in the show, and the recognition which they received will long be remembered by the class of 1934-35. The class entered stock in the American Legion show held on September 27-28 in Chillicothe, Missouri. At this show, the boys were very fortunate in winning the blue ribbon for grand champion. The stock and poultry judging teams went to Columbia, Missouri, in the spring and to Jefferson City, Missouri, where they visited the state capitol.

The club has its social side also. Among the entertainments were the initiation party and the Father and Son banquet. The program of the banquet, which was held on Washington's birthday, February 22, had as its motif the life of Washington. This event was so successful that the boys plan to make it an annual affair.

The Chilletes, the girls pep squad of Chillicothe High School are organized for a two-fold purpose: to create pep and enthusiasm in all school activities and to stimulate school spirit. Its membership is composed of seven Seniors, five Juniors, and three Sophomores chosen by a popular vote of their respective classes. They are a group of clean, alert, fun loving girls always working for the betterment of the school.

The girls, dressed in black trousers, and gray red blouses with perky black ties, are always on hand at all home games helping the Hornets to victory with their yelling and singing; and whenever it is possible they accompany the teams on out-of-town trips.

Practically all the pep assemblies this year were in charge of the Chilletes, who, guided by their capable and willing sponsor, Miss Miller, have presented upon each occasion a different and clever stunt. Stunts were also given between halves of several football and basketball games.

Seven of the members have attained the honor of being elected to National Honor Society. They are: Virginia Newell, Mary Elizabeth Morgan, Mary Frances Ormsby, Maibelle Drumm, Hope Harvey, and Darlene Shaw.

The Chilletes entertained the visiting basketball teams and pep squads from Marshall, Cameron, and Trenton after each respective home game. The cafeteria was cleared for dancing and a radio was installed to provide music.

At the close of the school year, a formal dance was given honoring the newly elected members.

Next year the Chilletes are looking forward to a bigger and better year, hoping to accomplish still greater things.

CHARLES E. WATKINS

The Chilli-Peppers, which is the boys' pep organization for the Chillicothe High School, was formed for the purpose of creating and maintaining pep and enthusiasm, and a high degree of sportsmanship in high school activities.

This year the organization has many outstanding members. Four of its members, Charles E. Watkins, Kenneth Fordyce, Stanley Linton, and Robert Stepp attained the heights of the National Honor society. Charles E. Watkins and Kenneth Fordyce were members of the Gabbler staff. Stanley Linton was the winner of the oratorical contest in the Chillicothe High School and in the county. Robert Stepp was Drum Major and Joe Boehner was one of the yell leaders for the student body.

The method by which the members are selected is: the sponsors of the three Senior High Classes, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior, suggest candidates. Then the members of the organization choose their new members from this group. All of the members of this organization were elected at the close of last year with the exception of Charles Rockhold and Kenneth Fordyce, so the organization was ready to start with a bang at the first of the year.

But the organization has not been so active this year as in previous years because it did not have a sponsor; however, it had charge of the last pep assembly of the year, that for the Trenton game, and by a very clever stunt demonstrated that its members are full of the spirit which it takes to make good Chilli Peppers.

The Chilli-Peppers co-operated with the Chilletes in generating pep at all high school activities and in entertaining the visiting teams and pep squads after the home games. They accompanied the basketball team to some of the out-of-town games.

DRUM CORPS

MAIBELLE DRUM

The girls' Drum Corps of the Chillicothe High School was organized six years ago under the supervisor, Mr. Dillinger, then director of music. There are very few members of the original drum corps now in school, but a few still remain of the eight or twelve pioneers. During the ensuing years, the organization has increased almost two-fold.

During last summer the members met nearly every day to practice. Several new girls joined, and so filled the ranks of those who had dropped out on account of graduation.

On the Fourth of July, the Drum Corps opened a stand at Simpson Park from which they sold pop, candy, and chewing gum to the holiday picnickers. The proceeds were included in payment for new uniforms which were bought early in the fall.

In August the Drum Corps went with the Band to the State Fair at Sedalia; then after school opened in the fall, the Band and Drum Corps went to Kansas City on two occasions. The first trip was made in cooperation with the American Legion and the second was the annual visit to the American Royal Live Stock Exposition. These representatives of our school made a very creditable showing.

Throughout the winter, of course it is difficult to establish a day for regular practice, because there are so many other activities which interfere. However, as nearly as possible, the organization has met every Wednesday evening.

The members have been studying the rudiments of drumming and have made a great deal of progress in mastering the technical principles.

They feel that they owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Shaw, the director, and Robert Stepp, Drum Major, who have worked untiringly to make the drum corps an organization of which our high school may be proud.

FOOTBALL

Captain

JOE GALE

Coach

FRED FAUROT

The Chillicothe Hornets, with the aid of Coach Faurot had a very successful season in football this year, climaxed with a 19 to 0 victory over their traditional rivals, the Trenton Bulldogs. The season ended with a standing of five victories and four defeats for the local team.

Coach Faurot, who came to Chillicothe from Excelsior Springs after a successful season there, had a wealth of material from which to build his team, forty-three men answering his call at the beginning of the season. The team was built around a nucleus of eight lettermen, five of whom were linemen. They were: Joe Gale, Harvey Sparling, Jack Austin, Allen Edwards, Art Walker, Bob Faurot, Charles Moser, and Sid Peters.

The Hornets, a light, fast, and shifty team, piled up ninety points against seventy-six points for their opponents.

After defeats by both Carrollton and Cameron on very muddy fields, the Hornets really found themselves by winning four consecutive games. They defeated the Brookfield Bulldogs twice. The first encounter with their Trenton rivals was a very thrilling game which ended with glory for Chillicothe. In the next game, the Hornets were defeated by Excelsior Springs. This defeat seemed to whet the Hornet's sting for in the last game of the season, which was with Trenton on their field on Thanksgiving day, the Hornets completely outsmarted the Bulldogs. Sidney Peters was the high point man for the season with 31 points, Faurot was next with 15 points, and Paramore third with 12.

Eighteen men received letters for their services. They were: J. Gale, V. Saale, E. Owens, J. Anderson, F. Storey, H. Sparling, R. Tinsley, A. Thompson, S. Peters, B. Faurot, C. Moser, R. Summerville, A. Walker, J. Austin, A. Edwards, P. Paramore, L. Chapman, and D. Gale. The Hornets will lose nine men by graduation, but with nine lettermen returning next year the outlook for the Hornets' 1936 gridiron campaign is very good.

BASKETBALL

ENTIRE SQUAD

The Chillicothe High School basketball team of 1935 was coached by Fred Faurot, who trained the boys to be most efficient. Although they did not win many victories, a good name was made for the team because of its ambition to do better, its good sportsmanship, and its untiring effort.

In the last home game of the season which was with the Trenton Bulldogs, the Hornets fought hard and at the end of the match were possibly victorious but were defeated in the last few minutes of the game. The basketball season closed with a victory for the Hornets over their opponent, Brookfield. The season's standing was eleven defeats and three victories.

The following men received letters for their services in basketball: Newell, Anderson, Coulter, Moser, Faurot, Peters, Parrish, and Paramore. Newell, Anderson, and Coulter are Seniors and will not be with us next year, but the other lettermen are Juniors who will be back in the fall fighting and giving their best for Chillicothe High School.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

The Intramural Athletics program was created in order to provide recreation for students who remain at school during the noon hour, and also to stimulate interest in school athletics. For several years there have been no courses whatsoever in Physical Culture for girls. Therefore, this idea was introduced by Coach Faurot providing for inter-class tournaments in volley-ball, basketball, tennis track, etc., for girls as well as for boys.

He explained in assemblies of the various classes the system which was to be used. Then, each class elected two managers to be responsible for its progress—a boy and a girl. They were selected as follows: Freshmen—Donald McReynolds and Catherine Cox; Sophomores—Dick Gale and Co-Beth Smithpeter; Juniors—Bob Faurot and Maibelle Drumm; Seniors—Vincent Saale and Betty Byrd.

In order to create a further interest in the project, a plaque was offered by the school to the class who would have earned the largest number of points at the end of the year. This, however, was to be a temporary honor unless the same class succeeded in keeping it for three consecutive years, when it would become their permanent property.

Two tournaments were played before the resignation of Coach Faurot caused a temporary suspension of activities. The result of the volley-ball games gave the Juniors a lead of five hundred points. The Seniors, however, were victorious at basketball.

Although many students took no part in the program, those who were actively interested enjoyed the contests very much. We hope that Coach Scott will continue the plan.

District and State Contest Results

For several years the State Teachers College at Maryville has sponsored contests for the High Schools within its district in Music, Science, Academic subjects, Vocational High, Domestic Vocational, Agriculture and Athletics. After these contests at Maryville, the winners go to the State Contests at Columbia which are sponsored by the State University. There they meet contestants from all over Missouri. During the High School many years has been represented in these contests, but this year a greater number than usual was entered with the following results:

COTTON PICKERS' PARTY

Faculty and Students
Mrs. Grace Allen

The Minstrel Show, entitled "Cotton Pickers' Party" was given March 5 in the High School Auditorium by the school faculty assisted by the students. The auditorium was packed to capacity, many people returning home for lack of even standing room.

The scene was laid in a clearing in front of the log cabin belonging to Mr. S. Taylor Dowell, who was giving a party for his friends after a hard day of cotton picking.

The show opened with a southern song by the chorus. The lively performance consisted of jokes, tap dancing, solos, and quartettes, ending with a square dance by the members of the cast. The whole performance was gay and hilarious, the stage a riot of color, and the audience appreciative of being able to attend such a gay party.

IDEAL C. H. S. STUDENT

The ideal boy has:

Eyes like Hilton Skinner
 Grace like Sidney Peters
 A voice like Meredith Butterfield
 A physique like Bob Faurot
 A smile like Donald Gordon
 Hair like Stanley Linton
 Wit like Charles Edwin Watkins
 Disposition like Kenneth Fordyce
 Brains like Joe Gale
 Pep like Joe Boehner
 Can play football like Dutch Moser
 Can wear clothes like Tilton Newell

The ideal girl has:

Eyes like Joyce Johnston
 Rhythmic feet like Betty Byrd
 A form like Lorene Kroeger
 Manners like Mary Frances Ormsby
 Hair like Mercedes Fry
 Wit like Virginia Newell
 Hands like Frances Thomas
 Disposition like Mary Snook
 Brains like Mary Elizabeth Morgan
 Pep like Joan Chase
 Athletic ability like Mabelle Drumm
 Clothes like Gretchen Luchsinger

Nit: "Where is the Suwannee River?"

Wit: "Far, far away."

Dick Austin (riding on a street car): "Conductor, which end shall I get off at?"

Conductor: "It's all the same to me, Mister Both ends stop."

Lecturer: "Allow me before I close to repeat the words of the immortal Webster."

Joe Boehner: "Ye gods, Wes, let's get out of here. He's going to start on the dictionary."

"My brother and I are so much alike our own mother can't tell us apart," said the prize liar. "In school my brother would throw spitballs and the teacher would whip me. Of course she didn't know any better, but I did. One time my brother got in a fight and the judge fined me $500. I got even with my brother, though. I died the other day and they buried him."

Why Teachers get Gray

1. May we write on both sides of the paper?
2. I didn't hear the question.
3. Are our test papers graded?
4. I had my theme but I left it at home.
5. Must we write this in ink?
6. When do we have to hand in our next book report?
7. May I borrow a pencil?

A Fairy Story

There's a student
In school
Who studies
Every night
And prepares
Every lesson.
He never loafs
In the corridors
Or stands
In the way
Of sinners.
While in the hall
He never runs.

And on the stairs
He keeps to the right.
He reads
Every day,
And replaces Magazines
On their racks
After using.
He studies
Diligently
Every
Outside assignment

And never cheats
In examinations
He attends
Every assembly
And listens intently
To the announcements
And the speaker.
He never
Cuts classes
And talks
Without using
His voice
In the auditorium.

Barber: "Do you know your hair is getting gray, sir?"

Mr. Dowell: "Well, I'm not surprised. Hurry up."

Mr. Newlywed: "This cake tastes queer, darling. What did you make it from?"

Mrs. Newlywed: "I made it from a recipe I cut out of the paper the other day. Here it is. Read it."

Mr. Newlywed: "Um— this is a recipe for cleaning straw hats."

My parents forbade me to smoke;
I don't.

Nor listen to a naughty joke;
I don't.

They make it clear I must not wink
At pretty girls, nor even think
About intoxicating drink;
I don't.

To dance or flirt is very wrong;
I don't.

Wild youths chase women, wine and song;
I don't.

I kiss no girls, not even one;
I do not know how it is done;
You wouldn't think I have much fun;
I don't.

Birds of a feather

The Codfish lays a million eggs
While the old red hen lays one,
But de codfish she don't cackle
To tell what she has done.

And so we scorn de codfish coy,
But the helpful hen we prize,
Which indicates to any man
It pays to advertise.

DURING THIS ECONOMIC CONFUSION
a good many merchants have kept their business going and even made gains through judicious use of Advertising — No one has yet discovered any better system of merchandising a product than selling it —
Advertising is selling . . . just telling people what you have — why it is good and why they should buy it.

We do a lot of printing for advertisers (been doing it for 27 years) — we've kept our plant up to keep down costs — we've added sensible improvements to keep up an attractive product — some of our employees are young with the enthusiasm of youth
— some are older with respect for tradition —
the total is a balanced effort and opinion fitted to almost any demand.

We would like you to try it.
